UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Western Diplomats were reported today to be backing a Norwegian plan giving Dag Hammarskjold a major role in initiating President Eisenhower's Middle East peace plan.

Informed quarters said Norway was busy lining up sponsors for a resolution, which may be submitted before tonight, to the emergency session of the 81-nation General Assembly.

The United States and Britain, while working with Norway have decided for tactical reasons not to be sponsors, informants said. Some neutral diplomats indicated the plan had a good chance of winning the required two-thirds majority.

Main points were:

1. The U.N. secretary general would be given responsibility for making whatever arrangements he believes necessary to safeguard the independence of Lebanon and Jordan so as to permit the withdrawal of U.S. and British troops from those countries.
2. Hammarskjold would be asked to study the question of setting up an economic foundation

Union Issue Going on Ballot

State Official OKs 'Work Right' Writs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The secretary of state today certified for the Nov. 4 election ballot a proposal to ban the union shop in Ohio.

Reports from 81 of Ohio's 88 counties showed that valid signatures exceeded the minimum required to place the issue on the ballot.

The total from those counties was 373,744. A total of 354,210 valid signatures was required.

Ohioans for Right to Work, Inc., sponsors of the proposal, submitted 467,708 signatures from all 88 counties.

Counties still to report include Ashland, Hancock, Lake, Lawrence, Muskingum, Sandusky and Seneca.

The election board in Cuyahoga County, most populous in Ohio, reported 70,384 valid signatures out of the 99,491 submitted on petitions. Latest counties to report in addition to Cuyahoga included Trumbull, Medina, Portage, Summit, Wayne, Belmont, Lucas and Stark.

The proposal to change the state constitution would outlaw union shop contracts requiring workers to join a union to keep their jobs.

United Organized Labor of Ohio, formed by labor unions, has undertaken an extensive campaign to defeat the proposal at the polls. A favorable majority of those voting on the issue is required for approval.

Reports from another 18 county election boards, checking petitions filed by Ohioans for Right to Work, Inc. came into Brown's office Thursday. In all, 72 counties have reported thus far.

Sponsors of the proposed constitutional amendment filed 467,708 signatures, but need only 354,210 valid names to put the issue before the voters. A preliminary check shows disqualifications are running less than 10 per cent.

Counties reporting on Thursday were Erie, Ottawa, Clinton, Henry, Huron, Pickaway, Paulding, Montgomery, Butler, Franklin, Allen, Lorain, Marion, Van Wert, Ashtabula, Delaware, Geauga and Vinton.

Rainiers Said Expecting New Royal Baby Soon

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Rumors of another impending birth in Monaco's reigning family have been sweeping the principality and the adjoining French Riviera coast for the last fortnight.

Sources in the Monaco palace refused all comment today.

Prince Rainier and his wife, the former Grace Kelly of Hollywood and Philadelphia, already have a daughter and a son.

'58 Fund Drive Workers Named

Organization of the 1958 Pickaway County Community Fund campaign was announced today by L. D. Varble, campaign chairman.

The Community Fund has set a goal of $28,500 for the drive which will get under way officially September 15 with industrial, business and special group solicitations.

Residential and county community solicitations are to start September 29, with the campaign to end October 13.

Money raised in the fund campaign supports the activities of five organizations — the Salvation Army, Youth Canteen, Red Cross, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Varble is chairman of the drive. He will be assisted by R. L. Burton, first vice chairman, and Mrs. Ray Davis, second vice chairman.

DIVISION CHAIRMEN were named today by Varble. They are M. W. Burkhardt, Industry Division; C. T. Vaughan, Business Division; Charles Radcliff, County Division; Dick H. Robinson, Special Groups Division; Mrs. R. L. Brehrer Jr., Residential Division; Don Vogel, Publicity Division.

Officers of the Pickaway County Community Fund are B. B. Deffenbaugh, president; Mrs. Karl Mason, vice president; Dr. Wells Wilson, vice president; E. G. Grigg, secretary, and Karl Drumm, treasurer.

U.S. Relaxing Trade Curbs With Soviet Bloc Nations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is reluctantly easing its curbs on trade with the Soviet Bloc in Europe.

It is doing so under pressure from allies and American businessmen in search of new markets.

The Commerce Department announced it plans a substantial cut in the list of 922 items banned in any U. S. trade with the Communists.

All trade with Red China, North Korea and North Viet Nam continues to be prohibited, however.

And some items, especially in fields like chemistry and electronics, will be added to the list of commodities prohibited in U. S. trade with the Soviet Union and the Soviet satellites of Eastern Europe.

Officials could specify no particular items to be lifted from the control list. They said no decision had yet been made except the general one announced by Secretary of Commerce Weeks after a four-month consultation at Paris with 14 other free world trading nations.

"Significant changes are being made in U. S. export controls," Weeks said. "These changes will lead to a net reduction of U. S. controls."

Other officials said there will be a substantial cutback in the number of items banned in U. S.-Communist bloc trade.

Some metals will be included among decontrolled goods, they said.

The 15 nations which met at Paris included Japan and all the North Atlantic Treaty members except Iceland.

They agreed upon a master list of 120 items banned in Red trade and 35 to be watched for possible embargoing if they appeared to be "strategic"—that is, potentially helpful to Chinese-Soviet war power.

This represents about a 50 per cent cutback in the previous list of banned items adopted in 1954.

The master list is kept secret. But the member nations generally publish their own lists drawn from the recommended items agreed upon at the 15-nation session.

Rain Damage to Crops Eyed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Recent heavy rains failed to cause enough crop damage to declare Ohio an emergency area entitled to federal aid, a survey committee reported today.

But the report to Gov. C. William O'Neill said the watershed area in the upper Scioto marsh district should be termed an emergency disaster area.

State Agriculture Director James R. Hay committee chairman, said 1958 is the third consecutive year in which the marsh area has suffered extensive damage.

The area is in Hardin County and also is known as the McGuffey Marsh district.

The extensive survey showed that Ohio's corn crop was 78 per cent of normal. Percentages of other normal crops included soy-

2½-Day 'Windage' Required Moonshoot Marksman Face Many Problems

Whoosh! ! And Off You Go

Here Is a Preview Of Trip to Moon

By RALPH DIGHTON
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The rockets roar, your seat trembles and—whoosh—you're off to the moon.

If you could be aboard the moon missile expected to blast off from Cape Canaveral Sunday you'd see and hear about the same things 20,000 Griffith Park Planetarium visitors experience every month.

Assuming, of course, that the moon is anything like scientists believe it to be.

It's an amazingly realistic production, this mock-up moon trip, completed with sound and color.

So let's take the 60-cent grand tour:

You and 200 others are seated in a big domed room. The lights dim and you lean back against a headrest. Lighting effects transform the dome into the nose of a space ship pointed toward the moon, some 226,000 miles away.

Dr. C. H. Clemminshaw, planetarium director, begins a running commentary. As he talks the moon comes nearer and nearer. The planetarium round trip takes 45 minutes; Sunday's lunar probe missile will take almost three days one way, if it gets there.

"We scientists know that a great deal of luck will be involved if the first attempt is a success," says Dr. Clemminshaw. "Here is just one of the reasons"—

A huge meteorite looms up in front of the space ship, then spins off to one side in the nick of time and the space ship continues, eventually landing on the moon.

As you step out of the space ship, the dome lights change and you see a scene of transcendent beauty. Sharp craters, unrodered by atmosphere and water, stab thousands of feet upward. Craters as big as the Grand Canyon break the monotony of the lunar plains. The sun, unfiltered by earthly haze, is rising in all its naked fury.

On the far horizon the earth comes into view its continents and vast oceans barely visible through rainbow-hued clouds.

It's awesome.

Hope Given Up For Survivors

Search Abandoned After Plane Crash

SHANNON, Ireland (AP) — All hope was given up today of finding any survivors among the 99 persons aboard the Dutch airliner that crashed in the stormy Atlantic off Ireland's coast.

The Canadian destroyer Crusader announced the hunt was being abandoned after a thorough search of the area where the New York-bound KLM airliner crashed Thursday, failed to show any sign of life.

Ships of five nations had scoured the crash scene, picking up bodies and wreckage.

By noon today, 35 bodies had been recovered from a square mile of floating debris found about 100 miles west of Ireland's Galway Bay.

An undertaker said the first bodies brought ashore were in "pretty bad shape, indicating an explosion on board the plane."

The deaths of all 99—including 53 Americans—would be the highest toll of any single-plane commercial accident. The American-built Super-Constellation was the first commercial plane to go down at sea on the North Atlantic route flown by more than five million persons since World War II.

KLM began an investigation to find out why the plane crashed without even a radio report of trouble.

Flight 607E from Amsterdam to New York was last heard from 35 minutes after taking off from Shannon Airport for Gander, Nfld., after a refueling stop. Capt. F. A. E. Roelofs radioed that it was flying normally at 16,000 feet.

Then silence. Some 10 hours later a British airline pilot saw spots on his radar screen. A Royal Air Force patrol plane flew over and sighted wreckage.

The French trawler General Le Clerc sped to the scene and picked up eight bodies.

The British tanker B. P. Distributor picked up another three bodies plus a passport, personal papers and other flotsam. Twelve other ships hurried into the area.

Old Murder Case Cleared Up in Court

JEFFERSON, Ga. (AP) — The strange murder case of Charles H. Drake Sr. has been cleared up more than two years after the 60-year-old Jefferson merchant was shot to death during a robbery.

Here's what happened in Superior Court Thursday:

1. A. D. Allen Jr., a 37-year-old bootlegger who formerly lived in Winder, Ga., was convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment as an accomplice in the Drake death.
2. Charles Paul (Rocky) Rothchild, 33-year-old former policeman from Cairo, Ill., entered a plea of guilty to the murder and was sentenced to life imprisonment.
3. James Fulton Foster, 40-year-old house painter from Greer, S.C., was acquitted by directed verdict and walked from the court room a free man. He twice had been sentenced to death in the Drake slaying.

Allen, who now is serving a five-year liquor sentence in the Atlanta federal prison, was convicted by a Jackson County Superior Court jury after it deliberated 21 hours and 50 minutes.

Rothchild, who is serving a five-year robbery-conspiracy sentence in South Carolina, signed a confession July 4 admitting he fired the fatal shots at Drake's home June 19, 1956.

Surrender Talk Is Nonsense—Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today described as ridiculous nonsense any thought that the United States might surrender to an enemy in the event of atomic war.

Reacting to published reports of such a study, Eisenhower authorized his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, to say:

"As far as the President is concerned all this talk about surrender is nonsense."

The whole subject was heatedly debated in the Senate Thursday night, with Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) of the Armed Services Committee leading a fight against voting any funds for possible surrender study purposes.

"There has been no public money spent to study how or when the United States might surrender," Hagerty said. "There will be no such money spent for such a purpose."

Hagerty said Eisenhower, after approving the prepared statement, authorized him to say in addition:

"Even if he (Eisenhower) were given money for this purpose it would not be spent. The whole matter is too ridiculous for any further comment."

A new flurry of Senate debate was in prospect for today.

The subject set off a veritable storm of criticism in speeches Thursday night. At one point an attempt was made to close the galleries to the press and public because of the seriousness of the topic. But it wasn't done.

The United States has never lost a war and the legislators were indignant that the military should be having even the slightest thought of any American surrender.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) proposed tacking onto a $3,594,000,000 supplemental appropriations bill a rider that would nullify any surrender study contract and bar any payments in connection with it.

At the White House, press secretary James C. Hagerty said President Eisenhower "certainly wouldn't agree to any talk about surrender of the United States."

Hagerty said Eisenhower had ordered an immediate investigation of the reports about the surrender study.

But even as the furor raged there was no solid confirmation that the Pentagon was undertaking any special surrender study. A spokesman would only say that it was standard military practice to consider all eventualities, even those unlikely to arise.

The rumors apparently traced back to a study begun in 1951 by the Rand Corp., an independent, nonprofit organization which engages in national security research. Rand, which has a contract with the Air Force, analyzed the ways in which other countries have surrendered in the past.

The study, completed last year, was recently published in book form with the title "Strategic Surrender, the Politics of Victory and Defeat."

But Rand denied that the study dealt with any possible American setback.

"Nowhere do the study or the book deal with any hypothetical U. S. surrender," the firm said. "The question of negotiating with an opponent of the U. S. in a wartime situation is treated solely in the context of a termination of a war in which the U. S. would be victorious."

U.S. Sends New Arms To Police in Tunisia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is shipping a new supply of military equipment to Tunisia to strengthen that North African country's police force.

The shipment, part of which has arrived in Tunisia, includes small arms, jeeps, trucks and radio supplies. A similar shipment was sent earlier this year.

American officials said Thursday night the equipment was being turned over to Tunisia at the request of President Habib Bourguiba.

Chief Merriman, Sgt. Green In Kingston Pike Car Mishap

Circleville Police Chief Elmer Merriman, 58, and Sgt. George Green, 54, escaped serious injury at 2 p. m. yesterday when their car crashed off Kingston Pike about three miles southeast of here.

Sgt. Green, 150½ E. Main St., was taken to Berger Hospital for multiple lacerations of the scalp, face and neck. He was reported in "good" condition today.

The unmarked police cruiser was being driven by Chief Merriman, 364 E. Mound St. He was not injured.

Green, presently on a two-week vacation, was accompanying Merriman on a trip to Ross County. He was rushed to the hospital by Municipal Court Bailiff Harry Coss who was serving papers near the scene.

MERRIMAN, headed south, said the cruiser went out of control when he attempted to light a cigarette. The vehicle crashed into a bridge guard rail.

Investigating officer Robert Hoover said the cruiser was heavily damaged.

Sgt. Green's injuries resulted when he crashed through the windshield of the car.

2 Ohioans Aboard Missing Airliner

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—For Max Snider and his wife, Joyce, the trip home was something special.

They were heading for their home in nearby Bradford to celebrate their first wedding anniversary this Sunday, and to attend two family weddings over the weekend.

They didn't get there. Max, 25, and Joyce, 22, are among the 99 presumed dead in Thursday's crash of a KLM dutch airliner in the Atlantic ocean.

The news brought grief to members of their family. But Joyce's father, the Rev. Glenn R. Rust of the Church of the Brethren in Bradford, said the weddings will not be postponed.

Max and Joyce were in Europe with a group of the Church of the Brethren tourists.

Draft Call Is Issued

Blastoff Hinted Due by Sunday

Only Perfect Firing To Assure Success

By JOHN A. BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Science has made a date with that mysterious lady, the moon. But will it be able to keep it.

As early as next Sunday, scientific moonshots hope to set off the first moonbound rocket. But they will consider themselves lucky indeed if they bring off a rendezvous.

Here are some of the problems they must solve:

The moon is at least 220,000 miles out in space. But scientists must aim at any empty point, 137,000 miles ahead of the moon's course, and hope that both moon and rocket arrive at about the same time. That would be about 2½ days after firing.

Granted perfect aim—and you can imagine what a small error could do in 200,000-plus miles—the three-stage rocket still must fire perfectly. This means boosting its speed to about 25,000 miles an hour needed to escape the earth's gravity.

Given this initial speed, the rocket will gradually slow under gravity's pull until nearing the moon, it will be traveling only about 3,000 miles an hour. In fact, its average speed for the trip may be only about 5,000 miles an hour.

The speed is important. If the rocket slows too quickly, it will fall short of its objective. If it doesn't slow enough, it can zoom past and on into space.

While there are many ways for the moon rocket to fail or merely flirt with success, there is only one way to completely succeed.

What the scientists say they would really like to do is send up a rocket that would orbit around the moon a few times and then plunge back toward earth and probable destruction.

The rocket, in its few turns around the moon, would take a series of closeup pictures — including never-before-seen shots of the moon's hidden side — and relay those back to earth.

It would also measure the magnetic field of the moon, measure temperatures and count meteors.

How many of its scientific tasks it completed would in a sense measure the rocket's success.

To give their rocket the best chance of finding the neighborhood of the moon and staying there a while, the scientists have carefully picked the course and meeting place.

They hope to save a few thousand miles by waiting until the moon comes closest to earth.

The Air Force shot, if successful, will catch the moon in a good photographic pose. It will be moving from a new moon to a first quarter phase.

This means that the sun will be lighting up part of the backside of the moon — the side always turned away from earth.

County 4-Hers To Compete at State Fair

"Freezing Egg Yolks" was the title of the demonstration which won first place in the individual county demonstration contest yesterday for Nancy Wilson. Miss Wilson will represent Pickaway County at the Ohio State Fair with this demonstration. Nancy is a member of the Happy Digger 4-H Club.

Jeanie Walker and Judy Fee placed first in the county team demonstration contest with a presentation "Jean and Judy Play Emily Post for a Day." Miss Walker and Miss Fee of Jackson Jolly Tasters and Basters will represent the county as a team demonstration at the Ohio State Fair.

Also participating at the Ohio State Fair will be Sylvia Smith with her demonstration on "Sheet Magic" which dealt with ladies hose. Miss Smith placed second in the county contest, but will represent the county and Merry Mixers 4-H Club in the clothing demonstration class.

Eddie Ater and Tom Barnes will represent the county with a demonstration on "Producing Quality Milk". These young men are members of the Deercreek Livestock 4-H Club.

Other participants in the county contest were Sharon Towler, Future Farmers of Monroe; Becky Stevenson and Linda Minor, Jackson Jolly Tasters and Basters; Janet Schneider and Sharon Dorn, Walnut Fair Maidens.

Judy Dennis, Future Farmers of Monroe, was Junior Leader in charge of the county demonstration contest.

Red Paper Says A-Sub Trips Meant for War

LONDON (AP) — The Soviet army newspaper Red Star charged today that the United States sent the atomic submarine Nautilus under the arctic ice as part of its war preparations against the Soviet Union.

In an article broadcast by Moscow radio, Red Star referred to "the big propaganda hullabaloo set up by the U.S. press in its attempts to depict the trip of the Nautilus of America's answer to the satellite."

Fire Marshal Investigates Barn Blaze

An official from the State Fire Marshal's office is investigating a double fire which destroyed a barn on the Irene Gardener farm near Derby early this morning.

Harrisburg Firemen extinguished the first blaze at about 5:30 a. m. today, but were called back at 9:30 a. m. when the building again was discovered in flames.

Firemen said they were certain they had completely extinguished the first fire. The fire marshal was called in to investigate the second mysterious blaze.

Damage was estimated at about $300. No equipment was in the barn.

The first fire was reported by a Darbyville resident who was on his way to work in Columbus. Donald Rolfe, a member of the Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff's Assn., investigated for local authorities.

Unemployment Shows Drop

Pickaway County unemployment showed a drop of 76 persons during the period July 19 through August 9, according to officials of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation.

For the week of July 19 there were 82 new cases, 389 cases continued and none extended, for a total of 389. For the week ending August 9, there were only 12 new cases, for a drop of 70, 265 cases continued for a decrease of 124 and 46 cases extended, for a total of 311.

Unemployment officials credit the seasonal hiring of the three county canning factories as a great aid in the decrease. Officials also reported a general pick-up in employment throughout central Ohio.

They also noted that the average general trend of employment rises during the latter part of August, September and early October.

Jail Guest Insists On 'Upper Berth'

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — James Spring is a man who insists on taking the upper bunk.

More than a month ago the 23-year-old Mentor man became a guest at the county jail. He got an upper berth. And promptly fell to the floor in his sleep.

Thursday it happened again. This time he suffered a mild brain concussion and was unconscious for six hours at Lake County Memorial Hospital.

But upon his return to the jail, he still wouldn't take the lower. Likes it up high.

If it happens again, it will be no secret. When he hits the floor, you can hear it all over the jailhouse. He weighs 265.

South Atlantic Alerted for New Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Persons in the Windward and Leeward Islands of the south Atlantic were told today to ready themselves for quick action if Hurricane Cleo should threaten their area.

Cleo, first hurricane of the season, marched along today at 15 m.p.h. bearing west-northwest about 700 miles east of Martinique, French Antilles, or about 2,200 miles east-southeast of Miami.

Highest winds in Cleo were estimated at 145 m.p.h. near the center. Hurricane force winds extended 75 miles to the north of the center and 50 miles to the south. The Weather Bureau said the hurricane is expected to maintain its present intensity and increase slightly in size during the next 12 hours.

"This is a severe hurricane," the bureau said.

At the Air Force Missile Test Center at Cape Canaveral on Florida's east coast, Cleo was seen as no threat to the Air Force's attempt to launch a moon rocket, scheduled for Sunday morning.

Cleo's predecessor, Becky was believed to have degenerated into a wide area of squalls with few if any characteristics of a tropical storm.

Central Ohio Hit Hard by High Winds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Thunderstorms accompanied by high winds were general over most of Ohio Thursday night and early Friday. Some damage reported in the hardest hit areas in Central Ohio.

In Zanesville, the high winds hit installations at the Muskingum County fair, blowing down two tents and slightly injuring one exhibitor and a guard. Some trees and power lines in the Zanesville area also were knocked down.

Tom Gillogey, 27, and Russell Campbell, 26, were the two who suffered minor injuries when one of the fair tents was blown down.

In Newark, the storm knocked out power lines serving the city's south and east sides in addition to causing other minor damage.

The squall line carrying the winds and some showers hit Columbus shortly before midnight, snapping trees and power lines. Power was off in the Worthington suburban area for a time and the Ohio Electric Co. reported scattered damage elsewhere. A big tent housing the display of the Natural Resources Department at the Ohio State Fairgrounds was blown down.

David Graves, 20, of near Nashport in northern Muskingum County, raced his sports car homeward early today. He was trying to get out of a heavy thunderstorm.

On Ohio 77, six miles northwest of here, the car hit an embankment. Highway patrolman estimated the car flew 70 feet through the air and landed on its front.

Graves was killed.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average near normal in central and southern Ohio to 24 degrees below normal in extreme northern Ohio. Normal high 82 north, 88 south. Normal low 6-63. Cooler Saturday, warmer Sunday, then cooler until warming on about Wednesday. Precipitation will average one-half to 1½ inches — occurring as scattered showers south tonight and Saturday and over entire state Sunday and Monday and again about Wednesday.

Chain Reaction Kills 7 Cows

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio (AP) — Donald Draught, 73, has electric milking machines on his nearby farm, but he just happened to be milking one of his cows by the old-fashioned hand method Thursday. It probably saved his life.

One of the machines short circuited and killed a cow. The cow fell over dead on the machine and set off a chain reaction through metal stanchions.

Draught was thrown away from the cow he was milking and was able to turn off the current before a fire started.

But the short circuit had already done its damage. Seven cows lay dead in the barn. Draught said their value was $1500.

Tight Credit Move Slows Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was lower today in a mild reaction to a move toward tighter credit by the Federal Reserve Board.

Key stocks were down fractions to more than a point in early afternoon. Chemicals were weakest, with several off a point or so.

Trading was moderately active.

After an opening decline, stocks held close to those levels. Small losses dotted all key groups.

The Federal Reserve Board late Thursday approved a boost in the discount rate in the San Francisco district from 1½ to 2 per cent, considered a trend toward credit restraint.

About midday, Secretary of the Treasury Anderson said he would not rule out a tax increase as a possible method of cutting huge budget deficits and checking inflation.

Schering, Union Oil of California and Lorillard were up fractions.

U.S. Gypsum declined more than two points. Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical, Boeing and American Telephone & Telegraph lost one point or so.

Off — or so were Jones & Laughlin, Goodyear, Raytheon, Consolidated Edison, American

Budget Filed By Logan Elm

The Logan Elm Board of Education Wednesday filed its 1959 estimated budget with the Pickaway County Auditor. The budget, filed by board clerk Neil Morris, estimated a balance in the general fund of $7,486.60.

Estimated general fund receipts were: Jan. 1, 1959 balance, $18,606.24; general property tax, $215,008.53; school foundation fund, $76,450.19; rental of school lands, $20.14; depository interest, $2,607.50; other, $400; for a total of $313,086.60.

Estimated general fund expenditures: administration salaries, $3,150; administration expense, $1,000; instruction salaries, $17,000; transportation replacements and repairs, $16,000; playgrounds expense, $200; auxiliary agencies' expense, $200; operation of school plant salaries, $13,000; school plant operation expenses, $18,500; maintenance of school plant permanent improvements, $8,500; school plant expenses, $7,500; contingent expense, $1,000; contribution to teacher's retirement system, $3,500; county board of education, $3,500 for a total of $305,600.

Pope Urges Rich Nations Help Poor

BRUSSELS (AP) — Pope Pius XII said today richer nations of the world must help the poorer ones.

The papal message was delivered to a crowd of Roman Catholics from all over the world at Holy See Day at the Brussels World Fair. It was delivered during a Pontifical Mass by Joseph Cardinal Siri, papal legate.

"Never, notably, will one say enough of the grave duty of the privileged people, through their soil's resources and a genuine culture, to work generously and in a spirit of service to the economic and social development of their less advanced brothers," the message said.

Cyanamid, General Electric, Loew's, Standard Oil (New Jersey) and United Air Lines.

Long range government bonds dropped sharply.

Cafeteria fund receipts, $39,785.98; expenditures, $39,260.17 for a balance of $1525.98. Bond retirement fund receipts, $10,330.55; expenditures, $9,965, for a total of $365.55.

Business Finds Summer To Be Just So-So

Most Agree It Could Be Worse; Jobless Ranks Start To Thin

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — With the year's third quarter at the mid-point, business today can strike a trial balance on a so-so summer.

It isn't so good as many would like. But it isn't so bad as it might have been.

Employment has risen — but not so much as it usually does in summer.

Jobless ranks have thinned a bit — but not so much as they usually do in summer.

Industrial production isn't so flourishing as last year — but it's better than many had feared earlier and it's up a trifle from its March and April low point.

On the other hand, housing construction, while off a little in July from June, is holding up better than it usually does in midsummer. It is running nearly 14 per cent ahead of last summer.

Total personal income has climbed to a record despite the fact that some 7 per cent of the labor force is out of a job. Also, many of those who get their income from business profits find this source trailing the year-ago figures. Wages and salaries in manufacturing although a little higher than in June, are well below last summer's levels.

Helping sustain personal incomes in the face of such losses have been the large payments of government unemployment benefits plus jobless pay contributions by a number of corporations.

But one of the factors that helped cushion the recession — a healthy rise in farm incomes — has suffered a setback this summer. Farmers' cash intake has fallen the last two months.

The steel industry is far less active than a year ago. But the summer lull isn't so bad as first predicted. Hopes are high for a moderate fall pickup in orders and a successful testing of the recent price raises on many of its products.

The bellwether auto industry isn't having one of its best summers. But it too has high hopes for fall when the new models make their bow. This debut could be sadly spoiled, however, if the threatening auto workers' strike materializes.

The usual summer bull market has been going strong in the stock exchanges. But this time there's a not so usual factor involved: the bulls aren't just responding to the summer heat as a matter of tradition. They're motivated by a strong belief that further inflation will develop in the fall along with a hoped for pickup in business activity and in corporate earnings.

So at the mid-point the summer's good and bad points pretty well balance each other.

The big question is still with us: Will the usual fall pickup arrive on schedule and if it does, will it be a big one or just a token one

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An advanced research rocket has been fired from the Air Force Missile Test Center to probe the earth's atmosphere.

The huge missile roared aloft Thursday night, flashing on and off in a brief climb through the cloud-filled Florida sky. The rocket's type was not made known immediately.

Officials said the missile is being used in a program of atmospheric sampling to gain basic research information.

Scientists hope the missile will shed light on such problems as manned space flight and an intense field of radiation 600 miles up in space.

A Report on News Events Dated as of Aug. 15, 2008

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following the last in a series of four articles on what can be expected in the future.

By SAUL PETT
AP Staff Writer

On Aug. 15, 2008, despite some heavy moon-bound traffic, the earth made its complete turn in space in the usual elapsed time of 23 hours, 56 minutes, 4.091 seconds.

It was a day like all other days. Some history was made, some footnotes were added. Some people died, some were born, humanity inched forward.

In Moscow, the Linsky government had won complete control and began downgrading the Malinsky government, which had downgraded the Shmolsky government, which long before had downgraded the Khrushchev government for making a cult out of world travel.

In the United States, inflation had finally been halted and once more a housewife could buy a loaf of white bread for $2.89.

Her husband, the average American, set out for the office in a car 36 feet long, 18 inches high. He drove lying down, steering with his feet, his eyes on a small TV screen in the ceiling.

Jewel Theft Are Tied to Girl, 4 Youths

CLEVELAND (AP)—Police said today the theft of jewels valued at $150,000 from a car had been solved with the arrest of a 20-year-old girl and four east side youths.

Police Inspector Richard Wagner said one of the five had admitted breaking into the car belonging to New York curtain manufacturer Louis Hand.

Police secured a warrant to search for stolen gems in the home of an east side jeweler.

The jewels and $3,000 worth of clothing were taken 10 days ago from the car which had been parked at the Shaker House motor hotel while the Hands and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohen visited Hand's brother here.

Last Monday detectives recovered two suitcases containing a diamond lipstick holder and compact owned by Mrs. Cohen and insured for $1,000. The suitcases were recovered from a man and woman who said they had bought them from a man they met on the street.

Police said the arrests resulted from a tip by an informant seeking a $5,000 reward posted by an insurance company.

Coast Guard Unable To Find Man's Body

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — The Coast Guard Thursday was unable to find the body of Alonzo Wiggins, 40 of Cleveland, who apparently drowned in Sandusky Bay Wednesday night. He walked across the railroad bridge, which crosses the bay, to talk to a brother, and was not seen again after he started back across.

Now one physical examination for Life Insurance carries you through the years!

As we advance in age every man sooner or later will cross the line of insurability when he can no longer buy life insurance, or must pay higher rates for it.

Now... for the first time a revolutionary new idea that guarantees your "insurability" to age 40... gives you the right to buy added insurance at standard rates, REGARDLESS OF HEALTH.

This new concept was introduced by Bankers Life Company. It is designed to answer the age-old insurance question: "When I need more insurance and can afford it—will I be able to get it?"

Think what this means to the man just starting out in the business world... the young doctor... lawyer... men who know they will want more life insurance as they "grow". For only pennies-a-day more than the cost of an ordinary plan they can NOW guarantee the right to buy additional insurance later—REGARDLESS OF HEALTH.

Let me tell you all about this exciting new life insurance concept. Call me today.

Air experts predicted that in the future helicopters, rather than autos, would be commonplace.

It was, as usual, a busy day in Washington.

The President of the United States, a former physicist, told his semiannual press conference: "E plus M2 minus W equals NG12." Early English translation: "I'm going to Saturn for the weekend."

The State Department said it was still hopeful of obtaining recognition from the government in Dallas.

An eight-star general, chairman of the Consolidated Chiefs of the Combined Chiefs of the Joint Chiefs of Staffs, testified that an atomic-missile war was imminent

Ellery Queen Plans Comeback

Famed Detective Due On TV Next Month

NEW YORK (AP)—That urbane detective Ellery Queen is returning to television after an absence of several years.

His reincarnation is being supervised by Albert McCleery, the producer of Martinee Theater, recently deceased. The Further Adventures of Ellery Queen will begin Sept. 26 as an hour weekly series over NBC-TV Friday evenings.

The series, which does not yet have a sponsor, will be produced live from Hollywood at a cost reportedly the equivalent of the average half-hour filmed show.

McCleery, who has come East in search of an actor to play Queen, was saying the other day that he believes it will be "a sophisticated show because Ellery Queen is deductive."

Queen, as you probably know, is a personable, New York lawyer who also writes detective stories. From a literary standpoint he's a direct descendant of Sherlock Holmes. He's the antithesis of Mike Hammer who, from a literary standpoint, has no ancestors anyone cares to mention.

"In an Ellery Queen story," says McCleery, "you learn the facts of a crime and then you deduct who did it. This calls for a stream of consciousness technique which, in turn, must be offset by action."

"We plan to shoot special film outside the studio—chases and the like—and then integrate it with the live drama."

The selection of an Ellery Queen is one of McCleery's chief problems. Thus far he says he hasn't picked his man.

"The selection of the right personality for Queen is very important," McCleery says. "We have to match the mental image of numerous readers of Ellery Queen stories who have definite ideas of how he looks and acts. Once we're over that hurdle of identification we're on the way."

Girl, 13, Drowns

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—A 13-year-old Lorain girl drowned in Lake Erie Thursday night at Harmon's Beach, a private club. The victim, Adair Waugh, stepped into a deep hole while wading.

unless the Army were given complete control. Another congressional committee was told the nation's economy could easily withstand a deficit of $990,000,000,000,000.

Out of Mt. Rushmore, South Dakota, workmen were chiseling in the profile of Richard M. Nixon.

On television, Americans and viewers around the world enjoyed varied fare on their 20-by-20-foot screens. Most of the programs came from a global TV headquarters set up in the Taj Mahal in India.

The late show this day featured a TV first, a movie called "The Bridge on the River Kwai." Earlier in the evening, viewers watched, in living, deliciously gruesome color, an actual prefrontal lobotomy operation followed by a quiet interlude of candid, cross-sectional views of a living cancer followed by an inspirational wrestling match between two midgets and a bull atop the Eiffel Tower.

In Honolulu, the first major league baseball game ever played on the islands was won by the recently transplanted Oahu Giants, who defeated the transplanted New Hebrides Dodgers 18-1 in a pitcher's duel. Only 16 homers were hit over the short, left-field orchid wall.

In Tibet, Howard Johnson's opened the newest in its chain of restaurants on Mt. Everest "because it was there." On the bottom of the world, new split-level housing developments were still mushrooming in Antarctica while some of the older residents complained of the commuting problem to New York.

British newspapers gave only a paragraph to the fact that the English Channel was swum by a 2-year-old boy. This excited only a little less attention than the day's session at the United Nations in New York. In its 9,483rd veto, Russia killed an American proposal to extend the U. N. mandate on the moon on the grounds it was a procedural rather than a substantive question.

And in a tiny television studio in the Bronx, Archie Moore once more defended his light heavyweight title successfully.

Thus went Aug. 15, 2008, a day like all other days.

Cincy Boy, 1 Dies of Cancer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eichhorn have been praying for a miracle to save the life of their one-year-old son, Alan. But little Alan died in Children's Hospital Thursday night of cancer. The Eichhorns are expecting a second child in October.

GI Girard Now Father of Girl

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—William S. Girard, the ex-GI whose firing-range killing of a Japanese woman mushroomed into an international incident, today became a father.

A girl was born to the former Haru (Candy) Sueyama, the Japanese woman who stood by Girard during his troubles and became his wife before he went on trial a year ago.

One member of the family said the baby weighed more than six pounds.

Girard was convicted by a Japanese court Nov. 19, 1957, of killing Mrs. Naka Saki, 46, a brass scavenger Jan. 30 1957, at a firing range. His sentence of three years was suspended.

Captured Men Lodged in Jail

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two men captured in London, Ohio, after an intense manhunt are in Franklin County Jail here today, under investigation for armed robbery and auto theft.

The pair, Frank Driver, 19, and Leonard Benjamin, 30, both of Baltimore, Md., are accused of robbing a Mechanicsburg farmer of his car and wallet early Tuesday.

Both men surrendered in London Thursday.

Investigators said Driver and Benjamin held Miss Laura Arbogast, 72, and her ailing nephew, John Sinclair, 42 captive in Miss Arbogast's farm home near here for 10½ hours Wednesday. Neither was harmed.

Dems Say GOP Pays $200 to $1 for Dems

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic party officials claim Ohio Republicans pumped in $200 for every dollar spent by the Democrats in recent statewide election campaign tours.

State Democratic Chairman William L. Coleman said Thursday that the Republicans spent at least $29,000 on 11 recent political picnics staged by Gov. C. William O'Neill.

By contrast, he said, the Democratic "victory caravan" carrying Michael V. DiSalle and other state office candidates through 78 Ohio counties, cost the Democrats just their expenditures.

GOP leaders have not disclosed $1,301.

But Coleman said he based his estimate on Republican picnic costs on "their figures." He itemized these costs: 50 snapshots of each guest posing with O'Neill at three cents each, $1.0; postage on each picture package, 24 cents; picnic lunches, 85 cents each. Total: $2.9 each.

"If they had 100,000 guests, that will cost $299,000," Coleman said. He added that the $2.59 did not include cost of soft drinks and amusements or equipment.

Ohio May Record Gain in Safety

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—Ohio has a good chance of ending the year with the lowest traffic death toll since 1951, says the state's highway safety chief.

At the end of June the death toll stood at 815, Gordon Jeffery reported Thursday. That's 13 per cent below last year's January-June figure of 932.

If the trend continues, Jeffery said, Ohio's traffic death toll for 1958 may drop to 1,800, the lowest since 1951.

A similar drop was recorded in the total number of accidents and persons injured for the first half of 1958.

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mildred Higgins of Willowick filed suit for $18,000 in Lake County Common Pleas Court Thursday against her neighbor, Carl Burger, charging malicious prosecution and false arrest.

The incident last May started when Burger's garbage pail was tipped over on his lawn. She was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Burger, but the case was dismissed for insufficient cause.

U.N. Debate Vital to U.S.

What is likely to emerge from the special session of the UN General Assembly to discuss the Middle East crisis? Will the Russians score a victory there, as no doubt hope to do?

Or is there a fair prospect that victory in the struggle—for a struggle it is—will go to the West?

To answer these questions would require a prophet indeed. Premier Khrushchev would not have proposed this meeting if he expected to lose ground, or face, in the debate now under way. President Eisenhower would not have welcomed it, as he did, if he thought that the odds were heavily against the United States.

One or the other may be wrong. It hardly seems possible that both can be right in their judgment of the situation.

But although the Russians may be able to drum up enough support from the Moslem nations and the neutralist delegations to keep the General Assembly from giving the United States the support Washington hopes for, this country has a good case.

President Eisenhower said the other day he hopes the debate will deal with "the general problems of the Middle East and their underlying causes." He said U. S. policy is to "act in a positive manner and assist the Middle Eastern countries to realize their legitimate aspirations."

These are not mere generalities, placed against the background of events in that troubled part of the world. The United States has much to offer—and it is far better, and less dangerous, than anything the Russians can offer. It would be a tragedy for the free world if the debate ended in an American defeat.

U.S. Policy, Strickly Peace

What does Khrushchev have up his sleeve now?

This is the question that must be going through the minds of Washington officials entrusted with responsibility for foreign affairs.

First the Russian dictator insisted on a "summit" conference. Now he suddenly switches to the idea of holding a United Nations General Assembly session on the Middle East.

President Eisenhower accepted quickly, and probably gladly. It is certain he and his advisers feel the United States can handle itself better in the Assembly than in a Security Council meeting.

Perhaps Khrushchev is convinced he can gain more propaganda benefits—no doubt his only real purpose in agreeing to a meeting—in the Assembly. There he will have support of "neutrals," the Arab-Asian bloc; also, he'll be able to play on the irritation of U. S. friends.

Even so, the U. S. should be able to emerge from the Assembly session in fair shape. If the case of the free world is represented ably, the result could be disastrous for Moscow.

Who Is Really a Big Shot?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — How can you tell whether a man's really a big shot in the big city?

It isn't as simple as it used to be in "Diamond Jim" Brady's day.

Anybody could tell at a glance Brady was important. He'd have a diamond stud in his shirt the size of an ox's eyeball. And on his right arm he usually was wearing Lillian Russell, one of the famous theatrical figures of his day.

But success today isn't so ostentatious. You have to look for the prestige symbols.

What are they? A survey of office peasantries here revealed that, in their opinion, a man has truly arrived if —

He goes to lunch at 1 p. m. instead of noon.

He is on an unlimited expense account.

He comes to work at 9:30 instead of 9 a. m., and leaves at either 4:30 or 6:30 — depending on his whim.

He never has any cash in his pocket, and if he wants a newspaper off the corner stand, who ever he's walking with has to pay for it.

He carries an attache case. (The slimmer the case the more important he is.)

He has at least two personal secretaries. (An executive who has to share his secretary with another executive is a hopeless failure in the modern office hierarchy.)

His office has a closed door. It has wall-to-wall carpeting and the paintings on the wall are originals. Somewhere in it is at least one live green plant, which he and one of his secretaries — the prettier one — playfully water together.

He has a wife who is a committed chairman of a socially acceptable charity and gets her picture in the paper once a year — but no oftener.

He heads the annual drive of another socially acceptable charity, and gets his picture in the paper for a good cause once a year — but no oftener.

He plays golf and bridge, but believes pinocchio is the name of a famous children's book.

He has a big home in the outer suburbs, and a small apartment in the city — so he won't have to stay at a hotel if he works late.

He has two cars, a small foreign sports car for the country, a long black limousine for the city. These tests measure well the rating of anyone in the average office aristocracy except the chairman of the board himself.

He busts all the rules. He wears dollar neckties, drives a 10-year-old cheap automobile because that was the kind he liked when he was younger. He eats an apple for lunch, then takes a nap on company time. But he gets into the office at 8:30 a. m. because he gets an oldtime kick out of being the first one to arrive at work.

That's the big goal today: to become such a big shot you can act like a little shot again, and enjoy the simple things of life in your own way.

What's a Passport?

By George Sokolsky

Again, we come to the question of definition: what is a passport? Is it a card of introduction or identification? Is it a statement of national affiliation? Is it an assertion of protection?

The passport has never been a card of identification until the United States Supreme Court withheld from the Government of the United States the authority to decide to whom such a document would be granted. It was then that President Eisenhower called upon Congress to pass an act giving the Secretary of State "clear statutory authority to prevent Americans from using passports for travel to areas where there is no means of protecting them, or where their presence would conflict with our foreign-policy objectives or be inimical to the security of the United States."

Having lived in Asia many years, the passport to me has come to mean a document of protection. In fact, without it, one could not live anywhere except in a few Treaty Ports in China and even there, it was dangerous to be without such a document.

The Supreme Court's concern with the passport arises out of the Communist cases. The State Department has been withholding passports from certain Americans on the ground that it was against the interest of the Government that they should travel abroad. Some of them were suspected of being spies.

Espionage is difficult to prove according to the rules of evidence. The FBI may have an enormous mass of material on a man or a woman but little of it would stand up in a Court of law because the witnesses would have to be spies or former spies and their testimony in a Court would imperil them. Some of the information comes from other governments and cannot be used. Some of it comes from sources which are perhaps themselves illegal, such as intercepting telephone calls or surveillances of the work of unfriendly governments.

The data has been screened and checked but the matter has to be considered in the open court, much of it must be withheld. As Robert Johnson of the Passport Office said, even if the State Department knew that an American Communist planned to go to Moscow and to take with him important American defense secrets for delivery to Communist espionage officials, a passport could not be denied him under current Supreme Court decisions.

The Supreme Court, in the case of Rockwell Kent and Walter Briehl, held that Communism is a matter of belief and association. The Court said:

"... They are being denied their freedom of movement solely because of their refusal to be subjected to inquiry into their beliefs and associations. They do not seek to escape the law nor to violate it."

This is after the Hiss Case and the Rosenberg Case, the Fuchs espionage, the cold war, and everything else that is current history. The court held that the State Department could only withhold passports in cases involving allegiance and in those involving criminal activity.

Unless a spy has been caught, tried and convicted, he is not legally a spy, no matter what information the State Department, the FBI and CIA may have and he is entitled to a passport. This applies to Communists who may be members of the propaganda divisions of the Communist Party and who may be going abroad to do harm to the United States. The State Department is precluded from going into motives and personal histories and is limited to court decisions.

That is now the law of the land and will remain the law unless Congress passes another act to give the State Department authority over passport control or until another court comes into existence.

The minority of the present court said:

"... In a wholly realistic sense there is no peace today, and there was no peace in 1952. At both times the state of national emergency declared by the President in 1950, wherein he stated that 'world conquest by Communist imperialism is the goal of the forces of aggression that have been loosed upon the world' and that 'the increasing menace of the forces of Communist aggression requires that the national defense of the United States be strengthened as speedily as possible,' was in full effect."

Of course, the Supreme Court may choose to ignore a Presidential proclamation, but the court is bound by a Constitutional act of Congress.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A CHARACTER in a midtown bar attracted considerable attention the other evening by ordering 22 martinis, and extracting from each the olive, which he carefully deposited in an empty bottle. Then he drank the 22 martinis and staggered out, clutching the bottle desperately.

"What are you guys staring at?" demanded the bartender. "He's just following his wife's orders. She told him to go out and get a bottle of martini olives."

A lady named Wottle hired a maid who loathed answering the telephone. "I've told you for the last time that you are to answer the phone when it rings," stormed Mrs. Wottle upon learning she had missed three invitations to important dinner parties.

"Yes," said the maid, unconvinced, "but I don't see no good in it. Nine times out of ten it's for you or Mr. Wottle."

Sneezing? Escape Pollen

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Running away is not always a sign of cowardice. Sometimes it's simply good sense to flee from a too-powerful adversary. And hay fever is often an overwhelming opponent for some of us.

If you have the time and the money to take a vacation in a pollen-free area, it's the best solution to your problem.

Ragweed pollen makes things miserable for many persons, beginning the last few weeks in August and continuing through September and the first half of October. So if you suffer from hay fever, and still have a vacation coming this year, all you have to do is to go somewhere where the pollen count is extremely low.

An ocean voyage, of course, is the ideal solution, but let's face facts. How many of us can afford such a luxury?

A more practical solution, I think, would be a trip to one of our national parks where the pollen count generally is fairly low. For several years, surveys have been conducted in national parks throughout the country and we now have a pretty good idea which of them make good vacation grounds for hay fever victims.

The Grand Canyon or Crater Lake may be rather far away for many of you, but the ragweed pollen index in either place is considerably less than 1.

Sun Valley National Park is another good place to hide from the ragweed villain. The pollen index there usually is about 0.25—a very low count.

Mountainous regions generally have low pollen counts, but not always. As a rule, the Rocky Mountain area, the Cascade and the Olympic and Sierra regions are pretty free of pollen. Yet, in the Great Smoky Mountains the pollen count has been found to be fairly high. The same goes for the Shenandoah National Park, Mammoth Cave and some other famed vacation spots.

You might expect the Black Hills to be relatively free of pollen. But surveys show that the count is very high there between July and September.

High readings also are often found in Hot Springs from August through October.

Best way to make sure about the pollen count in the area you plan to visit is to check with the American Academy of Allergy or write to the chamber of Commerce of the area in question. Better play it safe.

Question and Answer

Mr. T. P.: Is it dangerous to eat foods containing bleached flour?

Answer: Flour that is bleached according to government regulations is not harmful. However, bread made from either whole grain or enriched flour may be preferred, because of higher vitamin and mineral content.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's idea for some organization to develop the Mideast has been kicking around in one form or another for at least two years. He proposed it this week to the United Nations.

This was a switch. Until now the Eisenhower administration had relied mainly on a different approach to the problem of helping the Arab countries develop industrially, agriculturally, and so on.

The emphasis had been on dealing with the nations individually and giving them help individually.

What Eisenhower offers now is a broad, regional Mideast development organization to be run by the Arabs themselves with the money and technical help coming from interested countries, like the United States, and from private capital.

This would, if the President's words can be interpreted correctly, put the Arab-run organization outside the U. N.

Almost two years ago—on Dec. 20, 1956—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) suggested a regional, rather than individual country-by-country, development plan. But he differed from Eisenhower in suggesting it be handled through the U. N.

The idea, in various forms, has grown since then. Humphrey laid out his idea after the Suez Canal crisis of 1956. That was when Britain, France and Israel attacked Egypt after Egyptian President Nasser's seizure of the canal that summer.

Nasser—perhaps during a temper tantrum—took the canal after Secretary of State Dulles suddenly and curtly canceled an American proposal to help Nasser build the Aswan dam on the Nile. Dulles offended Nasser by doubting Egypt's ability to pay back.

Since that time American difficulties with the Arabs have multiplied. Western influence in the area has dwindled shockingly. Nasser has increased his grip on the Mideast Arabs. Soviet influence among them has steadily grown.

So what Eisenhower offers now, besides its intention of trying to create peace and stability in the area, is obviously an attempt to keep a bad situation for the West from getting worse.

There is bound to be speculation now on what might have happened if Eisenhower had suggested a couple of years ago what he now proposes. That speculation now, for all practical purposes, is like water over the un-built Aswan dam.

Eisenhower made no specific promises on what this country will do if the Arabs agree on his idea—and that's questionable—for the simple reason that he couldn't until he saw what the United States was getting into.

But say the Arabs eventually buy the idea. If it takes as long to work out the regional development plan as it did to work out details for the Aswan dam—a matter of years—the United States might not then want to put up money.

For this reason: by that time Nasser may have achieved domination of the Arab states. Dealing with him as boss of the Arab world would be tougher than when he was just as Egyptian dictator in 1956.

Never Driven a Sports Car Then You Never Have Lived

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Want to know how to enjoy life with a belt in the back?

Just eavesdrop at the monthly luncheon of the Sports Car Driving and Chowder Society in a midtown Manhattan restaurant.

It's real far out, man, practically frigid, with about 200 cats and kittens digging this new rumble that's like orbiting on the ground.

And that crowd, kids, it's like nothing you'll ever see this side of Mars—everybody from corporation presidents to truck drivers.

Boy Fails in Try To Corner Token Mart in New York

NEW YORK (AP)—A youth with $5,000 started out to corner the market in subway tokens, it was disclosed Wednesday.

The 18-year-old decided subway fares, now 15 cents, were going up. He began buying tokens with the idea of selling them later at a higher price.

Curious Transit Authority police stopped him about the time his pants pockets bulged with several hundred dollars worth of tokens.

Subway authorities, who withheld his name, advised him that if the fare went up there would be no profit in tokens no longer valid.

They promised to buy his back at the going rate.

"There was nothing illegal about what he did, and I suppose nothing morally wrong about it either," said Vincent Curtayne, Transit Authority member.

"I just wish I had had $5,000 when I was 18," he added.

and from debutantes to secretaries, all tuned in like hi-fi.

The main idea here is that if you haven't driven a sports car kitten, you haven't lived. It's a theory that seems to be spreading all over, from Park Avenue to darkest Africa, with high concentration on the west coast and Florida.

The talk is of comparative merits of Jaguars, Austin Healeys, Triumphs, MGs and Corvettes. Members have their own jargon, as you may have gathered. For instance, a square is anybody who drives a standard car with automatic shift and power steering. With a belt-in-the-back is fabulous, terrific, the most.

There are almost as many women as men in this new speed fraternity. Wives whose husbands have been bitten by the sports car bug have discovered that they have the choice of going along or becoming sports car widows.

Unmarried girls have found that the best way to attract men is to buy a sports car.

Then a lot of big business men and professional men seem to find an outlet for their spirit of adventure in piloting one of these small, powerful speedsters.

Justice to Minorities

FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST SHOULD BE FRIENDLY,
KIND AND JUST TO ALL PEOPLE

Scripture—Leviticus 19:33-37; Deuteronomy 23:7-8; 24:14-16; Matthew 9:9-13; John 4:7-9, 25-26, 39-41; Galatians 3:26-28.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
"IF A STRANGER sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him. But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt; I am the Lord your God."—Leviticus 19:33-34.

The Lord then warned the children of Israel that they must not cheat the stranger, but use "just balances, just weights" in all transactions.

Possibly there has never been a time in all the years since those laws of God's were read when we should ponder and act upon them more than today. Many strangers are within our gates and in our schools, churches, homes or neighborhoods. School children encounter classmates who are strangers to our customs and language.

We all—students from the lower grades through college and all adults, too—should treat them in the Christian way. We should treat them as Christ would have done, helping them to adjust and Jesus into his house and made a feast to which many "publicans and sinners" came and sat down with Him and His apostles. The Pharisees saw this and asked His disciples why He ate with such people.

Jesus heard and told them: "They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."—Matthew 9:12-13.

We are not told how these self-righteous Pharisees reacted to these words of Christ's, and if they understood His meaning.

Passing through Samaria while going to Galilee, Jesus' disciples went into a nearby city named Sychar to buy food. Christ, being weary, sat down on the curb of Jacob's well to rest. There He still is there and is visited by many tourists.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water and Christ asked her to give Him drink. She was amazed that a Jew would ask one of her country—despised by

MEMORY VERSE

"Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."—Hebrews 13:1-2.

be happy in their new environments after suffering persecution and abuse in their old homes from which they have fled.

In the 24th chapter of Deuteronomy we are told how we should treat people who work for us. "Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates: At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it."—Deuteronomy 24:14-15.

Jesus "saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and He saith unto him, Follow Me. And he arose, and followed Him." In his position, collecting taxes for the Romans and hated by his fellow citizens, Matthew probably was thoroughly tired of his job. So when this splendid man beckoned him, he gladly left his occupation and followed Christ, of whom he was a true and loyal follower all the rest of his life.

Matthew seems to have taken

Jews—even for a drink of water, and asked Him to tell her why He did. Jesus knew her history, that she had not been a good woman. However, He said, "Whoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: but whoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."—John 4:13, 14.

The woman told Jesus that she knew that "the Messiah cometh, which is called Christ: when He is come He will tell us all things."

Jesus said: "I that speak unto thee am He."—John 4:25-26.

The woman went into the city and told all she met that the Messiah had come. Many came to Him and believed, and the woman forsook her former way of life through Christ.

Paul writes to the Galatians: "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. . . . There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus."

Senate Panel OKs Glennan To Space Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Space Committee has approved the nomination of T. Keith Glennan, Cleveland, Ohio, educator, to head the new civilian space agency.

The committee also approved without dissent the nomination of Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, now director of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, as Glennan's chief deputy.

Chairman Lyndon B. Johnson (D - Tex.) the Senate majority leader, questioned Glennan about the wisdom of his plans to spend "three day weekends" every fortnight in Cleveland. Glennan is resigning as president of Case Institute of Technology but plans to continue as a trustee.

Glennan said he was only planning to do this until about February because of administrative and development problems that arose at the institute during his presidency.

Lake County Gets State Hospital Fund

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Lake County Hospital Board of Trustees said today it has received notification of a $1,440,000 grant of state funds to build a new hospital in Willoughby.

The money will be added to a $3,500,000 bond issue approved by voters in 1956.

The grant, according to a letter from Dr. Ralph E. Dwork, Ohio health director, "resulted from a study of the increasing health needs of the county."

Mrs. Tewksbury, the former Nancy Hunkin, is the wife of the vice president and general manager of the Midland Steamship Co. She has a divorce action pending.

Egypt To Pay France 'Damages'

CAIRO (AP)—Finance Minister Hassan Abbas Zaky announced today that France has agreed to pay Egypt about $7½ million dollars compensation for damage inflicted in the 1956 British-French landings at Suez.

Zaky told a news conference the agreement was signed Wednesday in Geneva after a year of negotiations.

Ohio Military Projects Set At $45 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill earmarking nearly 45 million dollars for construction of military projects in Ohio has been passed by the Senate. Altogether, the bill provides $1,720,115,000 for construction projects in U. S. installations throughout the world.

The measure, passed Thursday, now goes to the Senate-House Conference Committee where differences with an earlier House version have to be ironed out.

The Senate version authorizes spending $19,558,000 for Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Ohio. That's $8,118,000 more than the House - approved figure.

The Senate also upped the appropriation for Lockbourne AFB near Columbus, Ohio, to $11,970,000. The House approved $855,000 for the base. The extra $11,115,000 is for a runway that had been deleted from the House bill.

Other Ohio installations for which appropriations were made in the Senate bill are the Army's Erie Ordnance Depot, $1,713,000, and Clinton County AFB, $11,589,000.

Federal Reserve Moves To Tighten U.S. Money Supply

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board, showing deepening concern over the threat of inflation, has reversed its recession policy and moved toward tightening the money supply.

The change in direction - the first since last November-came with the announcement that effective today the discount rate at the San Francisco Reserve Bank would go up from 1 1/2 per cent to 2 per cent.

The discount rate represents the interest charged Federal Reserve member banks borrowing money from the reserve system. A boost in discount rates normally goes hand in hand with a general increase in interest charges.

The reserve board action Thursday was expected to lead to similar increases by the other 11 reserve banks, although there may be some time lag.

Pension Ruling Given

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A former public employee who gets elected to public office has to forfeit the pension portion of his retirement benefits, Atty. Gen. William Saxbe ruled Thursday in an opinion to Marion County Prosecutor Robert O. Stout.

"Mary Hawthorth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Why don't you come down out of the clouds and quit giving the old stock reply to today's young women, who want to know how to cope with "wolves?"

Let us face it. These men are no respecters of character. It isn't a reflection on the woman's behavior, poise or finesse — or lack of same — when they "proposition" her.

I come from a family of four brothers and one sister (me). My father reared us strictly. I have always worked with men, and therefore understand their thinking. At present I am in charge of a department, and the girls are always telling me about men who "get fresh" with them. So wake up and face reality. If a girl or woman has no problem with wolves, it means she has no sex appeal.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: It will be considered, I am afraid, extremely audacious of an old man of 75 to attempt to answer the inquiry of the young woman of 22, for enlightenment about the "whys and wherefores of masculine behavior."

To us elderly observers, this disastrous change in society was not unexpected, since the irrefutable records of history prove that after each war mankind suffers a setback in morality and religion.

Now we are commercializing the trend towards depravity. The remedy? A return to the Perverbia-list's advice, given to mankind 3,000 years ago:

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6).

Training youth for life today is an arduous assignment. It calls for united action of political, religious and civic organizations, to prepare loyal respected citizens to be the backbone of our nation. Educate youth to forego, at least partly, the senseless pleasures and to be, above all, a useful member of society.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: A girl 22 asks comments from men, to explain their "wolf" behavior. I can't speak for the wolves; but I am a man, 27. And I think if more young women would conduct themselves as ladies, there wouldn't be so many wolves. I don't think there is any other answer, from the man's angle.

DEAR READERS: Well, as you see, there is widely assorted opinion, on the moot question of why men make passes. Since Eve and Adam ate the apple, there has been that tendency. But historically speaking it is only recently that "nice" women are everywhere, on their own. In the past, they were penned up, more or less, out of harm's way, theoretically sheltered by circumstances and tradition. Now, as first class citizens in a new social order, they have to evolve "inner" protection, in meeting men on neutral ground. Isn't that the problem, in a nutshell?

Mrs. Goeller Hostess for Women's Group

The members of the Women's Society of World Service of Calvary EUB Church met in the home of Mrs. Andrew Goeller, 1040 Atwater Ave., Tuesday evening with 17 members present. Mrs. Russell Archer was the co-hostess.

Mrs. Harry Hosler presented the program using for her topic "Strengthen the Church Through Loyalty." The group sang "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee." Mrs. Manley Carothers read the scripture lesson using Proverbs 25: 1-7 and I Thessalonians 5: 14-24.

Interesting points were read from a pamphlet on "Where Do You Live?" Prayers were given by Mrs. Hosler and Mrs. Ida Warner. Several members presented readings consisting of love, gratitude, obedience, duty and loyalty.

Following the period of meditation, Mrs. H. Dale Rough gave the closing prayer.

Mrs. Carothers, president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Warner stressed loyalty to the church when on a vacation or away from home.

Plans were made for the offering for the free literature fund to be taken next month. Also the do-it-yourself project will be due.

A thank-you note was read from Lucy Rowe, a missionary in Africa.

Mrs. Jennie Dean was in charge of the social hour. A contest was presented with Mrs. Carothers the winner.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Ron Barr Honored with Bridal Shower

Mrs. Ronald Barr, the former Marilyn Leist, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Donald Leist, 400 Stella Ave., last week. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Leist and Mrs. Joseph Sweazy.

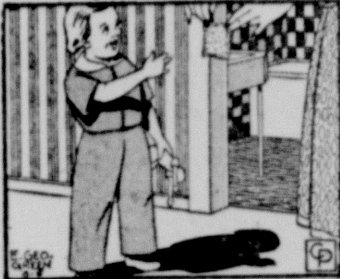

Decorations of pink and white streamers were used on the table where the gifts were placed. Pink Zinnias with pink candles centered the table.

Contests were presented with prizes being won by Miss Donna Woodward, Mrs. Charlene Stauffer, Mrs. Jerald Leist and Mrs. Ned Young.

After the opening of the gifts, refreshments were served to the following guests: the honored guests, Mrs. Ned Young, Mrs. Albert Leist, Mrs. Mark Owens, Mrs. Carl Crawford, Mrs. Stauffer, Miss Toni Sweazy, Mrs. Susie Scarberry, Miss Donna Woodward, Mrs. Joseph Sweazy and children, Deborah and Sandra and Mrs. Jerald Leist.

Gifts were sent by: Mrs. Ollie Allsaway, Mrs. Martha Delong, Miss Nita Dean, Miss Patricia Young, Miss Barbara Brobst, Miss Joann Blanton and Miss Roslyn Young.

Hillsboro Victory Finishes Top Hat

Top Hat was knocked out of the District No. 8 Softball Tournament last night at Ted Lewis Park when Hillsboro Sportsmen came through with a 1-0 thriller.

It was the second tourney defeat for the Top Hatters, their first coming last Saturday night in a 2-1 verdict by River Oil. For Hillsboro it was the second win in two nights.

Last night's game was a contested struggle all the way, with each team collecting only three hits. Hillsboro settled things in the fourth with the only run of the tilt.

The Sportsmen went on to hold Top Hat scoreless the remainder of the game and earn the right to meet River Oil Saturday night in the tournament final.

SCOTT, Hillsboro's fine pitcher, held the Top Hat sluggers in check throughout, striking out 14 and walking only three. In his last two games the hurler has fanned 29 batters.

Kenny Reid and Paul Neff, working on the mound for Top Hat, also turned in commendable performances. Reid fanned nine and walked three and Neff whiffed three and walked none.

Neff displayed a real cool-planner when he came on in the seventh to throw nine straight strikes and retire the side.

All six hits of the game were singles. Fred Davis and Carl and Harold Gulick collected the safeties for Top Hat and Rockhold, Cole and Kittrell did the same for Hillsboro.

Hillsboro will meet River Oil Saturday night. The Oilmen need only one win to capture the tournament since they are undefeated in tourney play.

A win by Hillsboro would require another game, with the winner of this test taking district honors and landing a berth in the state tournament.

North-South Co-Captains Picked for Saturday's Duel

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Quarterback Jack Wallace of Middletown and guard Jerry Bell of Cincinnati Roger Bacon today were named co-captains of the South All-Stars for Saturday night's 13th annual North-South high school football game at Fawcett Stadium.

Leading the 25 - man Yankee squad are tackle Peter Kakela of Toledo Libbey and halfback George Seftic of Cleveland Benedictine.

The four co-captains are among starters named by South Coach Ben Wilson, late of Mount Vernon and now of Sandusky and Yankee Coach Hilton Murphy of Toledo Devilliss.

The probable starting lineups are: North—ends, Les Taver of Alliance and Clyde Childers of Massillon; tackles, Ron Skufka of Cleveland Benedictine and Kake-la; guards, Owensby Pearson of Akron South and Paul Martin of Canton McKinley, a converted backfielder; center, Leaman Williamson of Massillon; quarterback, Fred Henning of Toledo Devilliss; halfbacks, Don Dwiakowski of Toledo Devilliss and Seftic; fullback, Mel Shapiro of Toledo Devilliss.

South — ends, Bob Copley of Portsmouth and George Whitmer of Cincinnati Purcell; tackles Pat Russ of Cincinnati Roger Bacon and Roger Vorherr of Cincinnati Western Hills; guards, Joe Grant of Portsmouth and Bell; center, Donald Ross of Lancaster; quarterback, Wallace; halfbacks, Brice Hess of Mount Vernon and Ted Harless of Stenberville; fullback, Bob Ferguson of Troy.

Copley is the only questionable starter, the Portsmouth end having suffered a shoulder injury. If he fails to make it, his replacement will be Charles Rossisky of Columbus North.

Both squads will feature the T formation on offense and each will go after extra points in an unusual way.

Murphy said Kwiatkowski would dropkick for extra points after touchdowns and Wilson said his team probably will "go for two points under the new rule."

The dropkick is almost obsolete in present day football.

Under the new rule a conversion made by kicking is worth one point, while a successful pass or three-yard plunge is good for two points.

"We have a great passer in quarterback Jack Wallace of Middletown and an outstanding line-cracker in fullback Bob Ferguson of Troy," Wilson said. "This game looks close enough that one point might decide it and we're going for all we can get."

The Ohio High School Football Coaches Assn. changed the rules Thursday night for selecting all-star players. Counting of northern votes for southern players will be permitted, and vice versa. Under previous rules, coaches could vote for players only in their own districts. The new rule permits over-the-border ballots for teams near the dividing line.

Indications were that Saturday night's contest would attract close to 16,000 fans. Of the previous dozen games, each section of the state has won five, and two games have ended in ties.

All-Stars Plan Daring Effort

Colleagues All Ready
For Tonight's Battle

CHICAGO (AP) — The All-Stars start Operation Ozone tonight.

They are expected to make a daring effort to beat the Detroit Lions, champions of the National Football League.

The 25th All-Star promises to draw 70,000 spectators to Soldier Field. It will be televised and broadcast nationally by ABC starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

The Lions rule a solid 13½ point favorite to gain a 16th decision for the pros in the rivalry. The All-Stars have won seven times, the last being 30-27 over the Cleveland Browns in 1955, and have held the pro champs to two stand-stills. In two other appearances in the classic the Lions have treated the All-Stars as morsels. They beat them 24-10 in 19-3 and 31-6 in 1954.

In two other appearances in the classic the Lions have treated the stills.

With Tobin Rote and Bobby Layne giving a powerful one-two punch at quarterback, the Lions again are preparing for a feast.

Probably their two busiest men will be Darris McCord and Gene Cronin, defensive ends. They are assigned to barge into the All-Stars backfield in an attempt to smear passing plans.

But don't get the idea the collegiate sensations of 1957—many of whom already are under contract to NFL clubs—are lambs being led to slaughter. They have the passers, speedy receivers and break-away runners to make the Lions pant.

And they have Otto Graham as head coach with a staff of former pros who know what to expect.

Perhaps their offense will be keyed by a series of flat passes from King Hill of Rice or Jim Ninowski of Michigan State to such quick-footed halfbacks as Jim Pace of Michigan; Dick Christy of North Carolina; Bob Mitchell of Illinois; Phil King of Louisville.

Other targets are such ball-grasping ends as Fred Dugan of Dayton; Jim Gibbons of Iowa; Bob Jewett of Michigan State, and Tom Shulte of East Kentucky State.

The game will be played under pro rules permitting free substitution. The forecast is for fair and pleasant weather with temperatures in the 70's.

At 96, Stagg Still Is Active

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) —You probably never heard of Stockton Junior College's football team unless you live nearby. But it's a safe bet you've heard of the man who will show up shortly to teach the boys how to kick — Amos Alonzo Stagg.

Just 96 years young today, the white-haired dean of football coaches is counting the days until Sept. 1 when he will begin his 68th consecutive year of coaching. His punting advisory role, which he's been filling since 1953, is a far cry from his 41 years as head coach at Chicago. But it keeps the Yale All-America end of the '80s in touch.

Look Who's Worried About a Job - Casey

BOSTON (AP) — New York Manager Casey Stengel was asked Thursday why he sent Enos Salughter to pinchhit for pitcher Duke Maas against Boston in the fourth inning with the Yanks ahead 3-2.

"I had heard in the third inning that a manager (Birdie Tebbetts) just lost a job," Stengel replied. "So I got a little nervous and decided to get some runs."

Slaughter came through with a two-run double and the New Yorkers romped 8-2.

Registered Pointer Has 17-Pup Litter

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Seventeen healthy puppies, reportedly the biggest litter ever born to a registered pointer, tumbled about in their 3-year-old mother's bed in a veterinary hospital here today.

Dr. Charles M. Speegle, operator of the hospital and owner of the nine males and eight females, said the American Kennel Club office in New York told him that 14 was the previous record litter for a registered pointer.

Birdie Sits In Stands as Redlegs Flop

CINCINNATI (AP)—A solemn-faced man and his wife sat in a box at Crosley Field Thursday night and watched the Cincinnati Redlegs hit a season low in batting futility.

It was Birdie Tebbetts who earlier in the day had quit as manager of the Redlegs saying "I believe that it is better for Cincinnati baseball that someone succeed me."

Thursday night he watched the Redlegs lose chance after chance to get something going for the lack of a few base hits. It was the same problem he had been fighting all season. Only it was worse for Jimmy Dykes, who had taken over as acting manager.

The Redlegs got only one hit off Joey Jay in eight innings and none off Warren Spahn in one in a 3-0 victory by the Milwaukee Braves.

Tebbetts and his wife sat with Redleg general manager Gabe Paul. Earlier, Paul had said, "I certainly would recommend him to another organization. I have never worked with a manager who was more cooperative."

Down in the Redleg clubhouse, the retiring manager also got a big boost from several of his players.

"It's a lousy shame," said pitcher Joe Nuxhall. "He's a great guy."

Outfielder Gus Bell said, "players made the mistakes — who doesn't—but they the fans took it out on Birdie."

Hebert and Jacobs Tied in St. Paul Test

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Lionel Hebert, 1957 PGA champion from Lafayette, La., and 23-year-old Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., took a slim one-stroke lead into the second round of the $25,000 St. Paul Open Golf Tournament today.

Sam Snead, Frank Stranahan, Cary Middlecoff, and Doug Ford were bunched at 7-under-par 65.

Among those bracketed at 66 were PGA champ Dow Finsterwall, Art Wall, Bob Rosburg, Mike Souhak, and Ken Venturi, the defending champion.

Coach 'Red' Sanders Dies of Heart Attack

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Death apparently from a heart attack Thursday ended the career of one of America's great football coaches, Henry (Red) Sanders, of UCLA. He was 53.

Sanders, who came here from Vanderbilt in 1949 and developed UCLA Bruin teams of powerful pre-eminence, died in a second-floor room of a small hotel near the downtown area.

Bunting foul on the third strike is out. But if the bunt is caught, the player making the catch gets credit and the batter is not charged with a strikeout.

GE Nine Remains Undefeated With 29-3 Win over Elkmens

Elks and Kiwanis played to a 1-1 deadlock last night in Little League action. In Mosquito League play, General Electric remained undefeated in second round play as it blasted Elks, 29-3 last night at Ted Lewis Park.

David Hannahs, with three no-hitters under his belt this year, missed his fourth and third in a row, when Bruce Helwagen smacked a second inning offering for a home run and Kiwanis' only run and hit.

Elksmen managed three hits off Helwagen but were unable to capitalize on them. Their only run was unearned in the fourth inning, when Junior Tootle walked, pilfered second and third and scored on an error.

Helwagen struck out 12 and walked five, while Hannahs whiffed 11 and walked four. The game will be replayed at 5 p. m. Monday on the softball diamond. Kiwanis must win to meet New Car Dealers for a berth in the playoffs and Elks needs the victory for a first place league tie.

GE's Jim Wells was the winning GE pitcher, holding Elks to three hits, two by Bobby Dean. Contrell and Strawser each had four hits for the winners. Strawser's big blow was a grand slam home run.

An interested baseball fan at last night's Mosquito League game asked an Elk player what the score was. The youth said, "The score is 18-0, but that's alright, we haven't been at bat yet."

GE meets Jaycees Monday at 4 p. m. on the Little League diamond. If GE is victorious it will be second round champions and will meet first round winners Ralston Purina. Should GE lose it will play Chamber of Commerce for a second round playoff game.

Ty Cobb Urges More 'Thefts'

NEW YORK (AP) — Ty Cobb advocates greater use of the stolen base, thinks modern players don't show enough initiative and inventiveness, and blames the batters, not the pitchers for the recent beanball epidemic.

Otherwise the game of baseball is being played not much differently from his day — with due allowances made for the lively ball. And he believes such stars as Mickey Mantle, Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Whitey

Ford, Alvin Dark, Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews would have been stars in the 1910's, '20's and '30's.

The 71-year-old Hall of Famer thinks the modern era of athletes breeds a pretty good crop but he adds that the old timers were more aggressive, and had more initiative will to win and devotion to their work.

"I realize we are in a different era today," the remarkably erect, alert and rugged-looking Georgia peach said in a recent visit to New York to attend an old timers' game at Yankee Stadium. "The home run now reigns supreme. The brainy, old-fashioned type of play has given way to the slugging, swing-from-the-heels craze."

"I still insist there is room for more inside baseball, such as the bunt, the hit-and-run and the stolen base. These tactics have been almost completely discarded."

"Today's players are just as fast as we were, but they don't make as much use of their speed."

"I was always ready to steal a base, even when we were ahead by five or six runs. That was just to let the pitcher know I'd run anytime. Consequently, in a tight game if I got on base, the pitcher became nervous. His attention was distracted from the batter. Don't you think that helped the fellow at the plate? We won many a ball game that way."

Cobb stole the amazing total of 96 bases one year. That's still the record. How did he do it? He was fast but not a speed demon.

"I studied the pitchers, watched their every move," he explained. "The trick is to watch their knees and their legs. That's the tell-tale signs. Never mind the head and the motion. I learned from which side the fielders took the throw and how they made their tags. And I practiced sliding by the hour."

Cobb regards with amusement the attempts being made to discourage the knock-down pitch.

"Throwing at the hitter is nothing new," he said. "It's as old as baseball itself. It belongs in the game. I don't advocate throwing at a fellow's head. As a matter of fact, it's easier and more effective to throw at his feet. That loosens 'em up. They won't take a toe-hold once they're made to skip rope."

It's the players' own fault they get hit so often, Cobb contended. "They're all swinging from the heels," he said, "with their legs spread as far apart as they can. They simply can't get out of the way of those inside pitches."

Civilian Grabs Pistol Crown

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP)—A civilian today held the pistol championship of the United States for the first time in the 22-year history of the competition.

James Clark, 35, a gunsmith from Shreveport, La., won the 1958 title Thursday after a three-day grind in firing the .22 caliber, 38 caliber and .45 caliber pistol. He wound up with a score of 2,598 points of a possible 2,700.

Mrs. Gertrude Backstrom of Hoquiam, Wash., posted a score of 2,583 to win the women's title for the fourth consecutive year.

3 Teams Remain In Legion Play

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbus and Celina have the field to themselves today in the semi-final game of the Ohio American Legion Junior Baseball Tournament.

The winner will meet Cincinnati Bentley, defending national and state champion, in a title playoff Saturday.

Actually, it may take two playoff games to decide the crown. A team has to lose twice to be eliminated, and Cincinnati is still unbeaten. Both Columbus and Celina have been beaten once.

Columbus reached the semi-finals by defeating Newark 12-11 Thursday and Celina earned a semi-final berth by edging Lancaster 4-3.

Vic Power Steals Home Twice To Set AL Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Because the Detroit Tigers mistook the improbable for the impossible, Cleveland's Vic Power stands alone today as the only man in American League history to steal home twice in one game.

No one had done it in the majors in 47 years and only two National Leaguers before that. Power hasn't stolen even one base through 106 games this season, and had managed just seven thefts in 636 games in the majors.

Yet he slipped in for Cleveland's last two runs Thursday, scooting home with the winner in the 10th inning as the Indians beat the Tigers 10-9.

Joe Tinker of the Chicago Cubs set the record by stealing home twice June 28, 1910. The only other man to do it was Larry Doyle of the old New York Giants, Sept. 18, 1911.

Tom Morgan was pitching when Power's first steal capped a five-run eighth that overcame a 7-4 lead. Frank Larry was caught by the second steal.

The Tigers were left in a third-place tie with the Boston Red Sox, who were belted 8-2 by the league-leading New York Yankees. The Chicago White Sox, 14 1/2 games behind strengthened their hold on second by beating Kansas City 5-2 in the only other AL game.

The Indians blew a 3-0 first-inning lead, falling behind when Harvey Kuenn's three-run seventh homer capped a four-run Tiger sixth. Rocky Colavito's 26th homer, his second of the game, got the Indians rolling in the eighth and the long-injured Vic Wertz added a two-run, pinch-hit homer, his first of the year, for a 7-7 tie. Power singled home the tie-breaking run and moved around on an error and wild pitch for his dash home.

The Tigers scored two in the ninth for another tie before winner Gary Bell (7-6) came on for two perfect innings of relief. Singles by Power and Russ Nixon and a walk loaded the bases and set up Powers' payoff steal.

Johnny Kucks won his eighth for the Yanks with six innings of shutout relief. The Yankees scored three in the first off loser Dave Sisler (7-6), who went out with a bruise above the left ankle after being hit by a Tony Kubek drive that batted in the deciding run.

Luis Aparicio, who got things started with a double, lined an RBI single that capped a four-run sixth for the White Sox. Ray Moore won his ninth with a five-hitter blanking the A's until the eighth. Bud Dailey 2-2 lost it.

A very conservative guy, this Fred Haney who manages the world champion Milwaukee Braves.

He went into the last of the ninth leading 3-0 at Cincinnati Thursday night with young Joey Jay pitching a one-hitter. But when Joey gave up his eighth walk to the leadoff man, Haney, up to his tobacco pocket in pitching, pulled no less than 15-game winner Warren Spahn out of the bullpen for a mopup job against the last-place Reds.

Spahn did just that, completing the one-hit shutout and padding the Braves' National League lead to six games over Pittsburgh's idle second-place Pirates.

The third-place San Francisco Giants defeated St. Louis 4-3, and Los Angeles rapped the Chicago Cubs 7-3 in the only other NL games scheduled.

Jay walked the Cincinnati lead-off man in six innings. But the Braves backed him up with two double plays. The only hit he allowed was a leadoff single by Jerry Lynch in the sixth inning.

Billy Bruton homered for the Braves off Don Newcombe in the first and Wes Covington scored on a triple and error for a 2-0 edge in the second.

Ohio Weekend Fishing To Be Just So-So

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fishing's going to be just so-so in most areas of Ohio this coming weekend.

The Wildlife Division says fishing conditions have improved somewhat throughout the state during the past week, but due to the hot, humid weather, fishing pressure has been light and catches of consequence have been reported.

Her is the area rundown:

NORTHWEST — Most streams roily and high and fishing not expected to be good for the coming weekend. Best areas are Lake St. Marys and Oxbow Lake.

NORTHEAST—Lake fishing has been fair to good and most success has come from Guilford, Zepernick, Pleasant Hill, Charles Mill, Mogadore and Berlin lakes. Stream fishing is only fair.

EAST CENTRAL AND SOUTH-EAST—Such favorite streams as the Muskingum, Walhonding, Hocking and Shade are muddy and fishing is rather poor, Burr Oak, Reservoir, Leesville and Forked Run are in fair fishing condition. Outlook is fair to good.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH — Streams in Franklin, Delaware and a few other counties are in rather poor fishing condition. In other parts of this district, streams are in generally fair to good condition. Delaware Reservoir, Hoover Reservoir, Rocky Fork, Jackson and Knox lakes are all in good fishing condition. Fishing, however, is expected to be only fair.

SOUTHWEST — Lake fishing is fair, especially in Grant, Kiser, Stonelick, Cowan and Indian lakes. Streams are in fair to good condition.
